1. Best moments from the camp? 5 moments

Answers of our kids were similar, so I put them together. Here is the summary of the most memorable moments from Tesáre Camp.

Ema, Soňa, Alexandra, Tamara, Monika, Denisa, Tereza, Laura, Pavol, Tomáš.

Water-fighting with small water guns.

Playing volleyball all together.

Barbecue party, making our own dinner.

The trip to Energoland Mochovce. I have never seen a place like this before.

Walking tour to Babica. Trip to the local ZOO.

Of course, disco.

Meeting old friends, making new ones, being among friends – the best feeling.

When we all danced together according to one choreography.

I loved the afternoons full of sport activities and outdoor activities.

Trip to school in Radošina. We saw the place where our friends get their education.

Morning exercises – the best way of starting a new day.

PRESENTS! 😊

Whole programme was wonderful – we visited different places every day.

Boat trip was a highlight. Everything looks different when You are sailing with a wind in Your hair.

Bedtime songs.

Making small boats from different materials and setting them sail on the small water stream.

Meeting a friend, who do I exchange letters with, – my pen pal.

2. What did you learn in camp? 5 facts

I have learnt a lot about people from different countries.

I tried my communication skills by using English in order to talk to my friends.

I have learnt new games and I am teaching my classmates how to play them back at home at my school now.

I realised the importance of knowledge of foreign languages.

I have learnt new English words.

I liked that we always worked in different teams, with other children, so we have all become friends.

There were many new games from kids from other countries.

My ability to speak English is much better now.

Even if I don't know how to say something, I use my hands and if it is necessary even my legs to express myself 😊

3. How did I meet new friends? How did I take contact and why did I do it?

There was a boy, who invited me to his volleyball team. We started to talk and became friends.

There was an activity focused on introducing ourselves and after that we played games and talked more.

I was sitting new to one boy and we started to talk. The next day we happened to be in the same sport team and from that moment we spent a lot of time together.

While travelling to a trip by bus there were girls sitting in front of me playing an interesting game. I asked them to teach me how to play it and they invited me to play with them. That's how we've become friends.

I found new friends during playing volleyball.

My new friends came from the group I was in during making handcrafts. We helped each other with creating a crossroads.

In the evening of the first day we were waiting for the children from distant countries to arrive to the camp. Once the buses arrived, my pen pal got off the bus and we recognized each other. We smiled at each other, started conversation with short sentences and we became friend for the rest of the week. We were all the time together.

4. What advice would you give for the pupils who are going to next camp?
 - Focus on learning English, it is really essential.
 - Be happy that You are the chosen one, because it will really be the time of Your life.
 - Don't hesitate to use Your English. It's better to say something, even if it is wrong, than be silent.
 - Take Your good mood with You and enjoy everything.
 - You absolutely don't need Your cell phone. You will be surprised how easy the life is without it.

5. When I go to camp I need to think about
 - Talk, talk, talk in English
 - What do I need to take with me? Think in advance.
 - Where am I going to stay?
 - What is the weather going to be like?
 - I will need some money to buy presents for family.
 - Going to the camp is an opportunity for me, so I will take my good mood with me.
 - Dancing and singing will happen on daily basis.
 - I need to behave.
 - I have to be talkative and good in socializing.

I don't need:

Cell phone

Many unnecessary things

Brilliant English, basics in enough

To be a good dancer. I will learn it there.

Other languages.

For parents

1. What did your child tell about the camp?

She was very grateful for being chosen to go to the camp, because she loved it.

He kept on talking about everything new and interesting he experienced.
My son had a wonderful time full of entertainment; he would love to go again. He was a little bit sad that he hadn't met his pen pal.
My daughter found many new friends and described the place as wonderful.
She was full of new experiences and nice memories.
She was surprised how easy it was to communicate in English and understand other kids.
She loved the trips and programme.
My son really liked everything; especially new interesting places which they visited.

2. How would you prepare your kids for camp?

Maybe some games like cards would be a nice idea what to pack for my kids besides clothes.
Encourage them to use English.
Don't forget to tell him to behave, spend more time supervising his English studies, prepare small presents for new friends.
Pack his suitcase by myself.
Repeat and go through the most important phrases in English language.
Check and pack all the necessary things.
Remind him of good behaviour and respecting teachers' authority.
Make a list of the most important English phrases, teach him some English songs, motivate and encourage him in using English.

3. What do you expect from a camp?

Nice place to stay, improving some skills, meeting new friends.
Making new friends, meeting old friends and pen pals, learning new phrases in English.
Taking a little rest from school – reward for good performance, learning new things, meeting new people.
Having fun.
New experiences, friendships, gaining independence, new knowledge, skills.
Improvement in English language.

4. What information would you like to get before the camp?

Daily programme
A list of important things.
Brief information about the food provided.

Free comments:

I am really happy about incorporation of kids with special needs. My son has learnt how to respect them and how to treat them. He admired them for their ability to manage daily issues with almost no troubles.
I would appreciate providing us with an e-mail address, so kids could be able to communicate also on private level.
We have experienced the importance of English language and need to learn language every day.

Why is the camp important?

Teachers

The importance of the camp is based on the personal meetings and communication among children. Activities during the camp leads children to learning about foreign countries and people who live in them.

It is an excellent opportunity for making new friendships and supporting the existing ones. Children learn about different countries via daily communication, they build understanding for each other. They also improve their speaking skills. Teachers can also gain valuable friendships.

Children visit different countries and experience life among its inhabitants without parents. They see various interesting places, habits, traditions, and culture. They can as well improve their communication skills. What is more, new friendships are being created and countries cooperate between each other.

Because of the necessity of knowing foreign language, children will understand how important the education is for them.

The camp highlights importance of communication between teachers, teachers and pupils and pupils. It is an easy way of making new friends, improving speaking in English. Another important thing is that children will learn how to be responsible for their own actions, to be more independent, built confidence and compare with their friends.

The camp also improves geographical knowledge of our children.

International camp can help to develop mutual understanding and creating friendly atmosphere among nations.

How can I support a camp?

There is a way for everybody to support the camp in a different way according to everybody's skills and knowledge. Me, with my communication skills, I can help with translation.

We can help the coordinator with organization of various trips, activities, finding or creating materials for games and free time activities.

Every person involved in the camp can help with creating the schedule and programme for the camp. Based on our connections and contacts, we can help to find sponsors and publish information about camp in local mass media.

We all need to participate on preparation of the camp. We should spend more time preparing kids for this event.

Our physical presence during the camp is essential. More people can help each other in more efficient way, which leads to satisfaction on both (children and teachers) sides.

Making tools and aids for various activities, getting technical support for the location in which the camp takes place. We can also publish more information about the process of preparing the camp on the web pages connected to our school or village.

Everybody can come with the ideas about activities. It is always better to have more options to choose from. Try to incorporate the outdoor activities.

What does a camp need to be successful?

The absolutely essential is to have everything organized in a proper way, which means that nothing can surprise You and You always have Plan B. This can only be done if You cooperate with responsible people willing to help and sacrifice their free time for the camp organization.

It needs creative and active people, who are ready to help whenever it is necessary. People, who cooperate with each other, are full of new ideas and interested in the topic, like children and like to be surrounded with friends.

Great cooperation, enthusiastic people and sponsors.

The base is children with knowledge of foreign language and willingness to use it in a daily communication.

A team of main coordinators needs to be strong and it really needs to be a team, not one person being responsible for all the actions. All teachers involved in this need to be ready to sacrifice their free time in order to create nice programme, help with activities and have enough energy to keep a track with children.

The location of the camp is also very important, stuff working in the area need to be children friendly, targets need to be set in an appropriate way, not too high, not too low and they need to be met.

The camp needs to be ready couple of weeks before it starts, all the participants need to be carefully chosen and have to met certain expectations.

Camp needs happy, optimistic, funny people ready to work together and have a lot of fun.

Camp for me was:

- A lifetime experience.
- Visiting interesting places
- Meeting old friends and making new ones
- Learning about other cultures via songs, dances and games
- Excellent opportunity to improve my language skills.
- Time of fun, relax, having a good time, but also time to be responsible, helpful and cooperative.

What did I learn in the camp?

How to treat people with different handicaps. I've learnt that even though they are different, their needs are the same and they also want to be happy. I've seen how kind, happy, skilful and smart they can be.

Cooperation within mixed groups of children is a great experience for our pupils.

The best way of how to learn foreign language is to use it in a daily communication and to be forced to use it by being in the international environment.

- Energy and motivation in those who are involved in
- Good location and structures
- A good programme of activities
- Wow moments and surprises
- Overcoming challenges of group work

Evaluation camp in Slovakia. From Sweden.

Parents

What have your child told you about the camp?

How fun she had with her friends from school and the other participants at the camp. Many fun activities, but she felt sorry for the animals at the zoo cause she doesn't think animal should be in cages. She has got an address to a girl from Germany who she want to have further contact with. She would have loved to stay longer at the camp, which is a good grade of how fun she has had at the camp.

He has only talked in positive terms about camp! Talked about the field trips (a specially about the owls) how the slept and about the other kids at the camp. He has talked about the food and how different he think it was from our food, he reflect it to be sweeter then our food.

Didn't tell so much... was a bit tired :) told about the food and the mine in the evening.

He has told us how fun it and exiting it was to fly an airplane. How fun it was to meet new friends. That it was fun to talk English but also how hard it was to both talk and to understand everything sometimes. He talked a lot about the different thing he did at the camp and the field trips. That it was very nice in Slovakia.

What they did during the week in Slovakia, what they ate and that she really liked the camp a lot. Our daughter also told us that they were good at English and that they got praise for it.

How did you prepare for camp?

We looked through the papers that he got home. Packed together the suitcase so that he would know what and where all is, and talked about the travel in general and what to do and not to do.

We went through what she would need at the camp and bought what was needed. We checked some thing what its called in English and practise the vocabulary that was send from school. Practise the song, both project song and EU song. And we told her to stay with the group and not wonder off.

Very well prepared

Talked English practising some easy sentence. Supported and pushed him how fun it will be. Packed the bag and talked about camp information from Pernilla.

We talked a lot about the trip. What was standing in the papers and went throw the packing.

What do you expect from a camp?

Not many special expectations except that it will be a good experience for Vilhelm that it would be fun and involving trip where he could get a change to try his wings. Which we feel that he definitely got. It was a secure and confident guy that came home.

That it would be a fun and enriching experience for her where she got the opportunity to grow as a person and to be able to do without mom and dad. An experience to be without mom and dad. To meet new friends. That it would involve him.

No special expectations more then we hoped that they would have a fun and memorable trip. That it would strengthen Erik and are pushing him to talk and read more English.

That it would be a memory for life for our daughter, that she would see and learn how it is in other schools in other countries. Learn about the countries culture and food.

What information would you like to get before the camp?

The information we got was quit enough.

We feel it was enough information that we got.

All was good, good information from Pernilla before camp no need for more.

Good information before camp. Could have been fun to see some photos before, for example where they were going.

The information we got before camp was good.

Erasmus project is a really good idea and I hope the school will continue with this projects! It is a fantastic opportunity for the pupils to be able to go like this and to get the experience over the ordinary. This trip is a memory for life and I think the children that went will share this positive feeling for a long while. I also think the bond between the children are stronger now than before. A good plus is that its all financed by EU so that all the children could have the opportunity to go not just the families who can afford to send their children.

A week full of experience and fun that the children never will forget. A memory for life!

Now a day late with this evaluation we can say that it was great! And the presentation about the camp in school was very good!

We feel it was a fantastic camp and that we are so happy that Erik got a chance to take part of this! It was a lift for him and very good for the language developing.

We would have appreciated more photos on our children during the campweek. It a bit hard to be so far away from each other without any contact the whole week. It would have been fun to see daily update on photos. Other then that we really appreciate all about this camp. A big thank you for the teachers and the drivers that was there for our children during the week.

How I met new friends:

Just started to talk

Started to talk

I ran for my life ;) and I talked

We started to walk together and then started to talk and we know are sending mail.

I asked what there name was and how old they were and then we talked more and more.

I said Hi

why did I take contact:

because it was the easiest way

it was the easiest way to get new friends

because it was the easiest
because it was the easiest because when I asked and they asked back we got to know each other better and then it was easier to talk.
Because it was the easiest way.

What advice would you give for the pupils who are going to the next camp?

Be nice
Talk English and be nice
Be kind, nice and show respect to all
Start talking to the other pupils at camp directly not two days before going home!
Start get to know others fast and start talking so that you don't find a new friend the last day at camp.
Make contact with the other pupils directly!

When I go to camp I need to think about:

+ be kind, behave your self, listen.
+be kind, don't be to shy, be nice
+be kind, be nice, show respect
+make the best of the situation, make someone laugh, make the best of the time you have +sleep well, eat a lot, keep a good hygiene
+speak English, listen, say hello early to other

What not to do:

-be mean, not listen, not behave
-be mean
-be bored and show it, jump sack if you are over 30, nag about things at Pernilla
-stay up too late, not listen to the teachers, drink to little
-wait with taking contact, things you are not allowed to do, jumping sack if you are over 30

Thank you for a great camp! For your hospitality and for all your help with transport and translation at the hospital. I'm very thankful to you for this!

Evaluation staff at school

Why is camp important?

To give the pupils an opportunity to see Europe and to experience Europe. The opportunity to interact with pupils who they must speak English with and due to this practice the language. This makes the pupils grow as a person and they get an unforgettable experience.

To give to pupils and the staff an opportunity to meet. To make the project "real". They learn a lot, meet pupils from other countries, speak English. Grow as persons and to be away from the parents.

It's important that the children meet other children from different countries and cultures.

Because the children learn a lot and it's a good experience to see other schools and countries and how it works there.

How could I support a camp?

Take part in the camp, at home: take good about the camp and all the positive and fun that comes with a camp.

Participate, give the staff that goes an opportunity to have time to plane, to go and to evaluate the camp.

Support the pupils. Help them at the camp with the language and other things. Help when we have camp here with the transport and things that are needed.

Anything that is needed.

I can help fix things that needs to be done before, during and after the camp.

What does a camp need to be successful?

Positive and participating teachers at the camp. Fun activities. Just like the camps have been :)

Engaged teachers, clear content and schedule. Satisfactory activities.

Engaged teachers, that all is positive. That there is equipment and that the pupils take contact with other pupils. That all have fun and feel safe.

Good organisation.

A good place for children and teachers to stay in. It's good if there are some good things to do, maybe a pool and a playpark.

The camp was for me

- a wonderful experience to see we can move Europe and that our project reaches the children.
- Everything worked well and the kids came much faster together.
- It was for me great time and a light after a dark time. And the prove: all work is it worth to do, when we see the success and the development which happens in only 7 days.
- The highlight of year 2.
- a great experience, an experience that will remain in my memory forever

What I learned from the camp

- that Slovakia is a beautiful country,
- Radosina has wonderful pupils, interested parents and many powerful teachers- a unique Gabi-and good partners to work with
- if we work together we solve every situation and reach every aim
- its great to have a European family
- that Slovakia is a beautiful country with interesting places and lovely people. And I met new nice people who enlarge our European Family.

- The camp was great but in Czech was a little bit better.
- Dear Steffi, dear Ivonne, I think it was great what you have done with us. When we made something wrong you always fixed it or made the best of it.
- It was nice again, the bus drives were nice, Mrs Ludwig and Mrs. Giersich too, thank you that I could come again.
- I liked the time at the camp. I would like to go again.
- I don't regret to go into the camp!
- It was super. Thank you to the two super teachers.
- It was super I would like to go again.
- It was great; I would like to go again.

1. What did your child tell you about the camp?

- It was nice, she learnt many new friends. She knew her pen pal and talked with her and this wasn't so hard than expected. There were many attractions (Mine, Zoo, Disco..) The food wasn't so tasty, there was a lot of soup.
- The rooms were so nice, but the bath and floors were new. The week was fine, Czech was a little bit better. She found it pity not to go in the pool.
- All things: nice activities. He was proud to be in a big room alone with his friend, disco was the best and playing foot ball with the Swedish was great again
- He told from the trips, that there was a lot of soup to eat, from the kids with handicaps
- She liked it to know new friends. She talked about the rooms, the camp and the highlights (police dogs, mine, partner school)
- She met her pen pal, disrobed the trips, the highlights police dogs and disco, the long bus trip, the nice bus drivers, teachers, and many experiences with the camp kids
- It was very nice, met new friends, good food, nice weather
- It was nice to meet the pen pals, the mine was interesting, the museum cool, the whole trip was great
- She told us everything most without any questions, she told about the bus trip, the room with TV, the girls,, the new friends, talking English, meeting with pen pals, the school, the disco, the morning sport, the dance, the fire brigade, the police dogs, the zoo, the ride with the tractor, the birthdays, the shows and songs, the major an the medial's, , the not so tasty food, the Swedish boys, the stop at mc Donald's...

2. What do you expect from a camp?

- A lot of fun and getting to know kids from the other countries.
- Collecting new experiences , new people, (country, traditions, language)
- That our child get open minded, learning other customs and languages, using is language competences and try to communicate and the "normal added values from a school camp" more self-confident...
- That the kids are more open and tolerant, that they work together, jumping over the fences and talk together in English, don't be so shy
- Developing self-confident and self-management of my child, open for other countries, waking interests for other cultures, man many new experiences and great moments
- Developing social habits, English, unforgettable experiences
- Great free time offers, safeties on the trips, good food, knowledge about the country
- That my child is feeling well, taking positive experiences from the trip and the camp
- We hoped that the camp makes our child more open self-confident. That she recognises each human is special, no matter from where and how the life is. Learning new customs about other countries, to learn how important it is to help each other to work together and standing for each other.

6. How did you /would you prepare your child for camp?

- There was 1 parents meeting at school, several Emails. That was a good way.
- We practised a little bit English, talked how to communicate with out using languages, and that there must be no fears- each child at the camp has git the same problems.
- .. We had experiences from the last year. So we just talked about that he stands s for Germany. A little bit preparation is always good.
- Normal talks about it, his experiences from the school trips and just a little bit about the long distance
- Several talks about behaviour , going with the group, changing clothes, no conflicts with others, packing the suitcase together, watching the homepage, Google maps
- Be open and tolerant to other people, people with handicaps, respecting everyone and everyone's opinion, answers and questions in English, present for pen pal
- Talking about behaviour, taking care about the things, getting in contact
- My child prepared by itself
- She could decide by her own to apply, we support this, we haven't talked about negative thing, underline advantages and the bid chance to represent Germany and the school, having fun an d enjoy the trip, getting new friends and be open, giving tips for bad moods

- Go on! It's a great experience for kids, (lessons at school are important too don't miss those).
- We are happy about your engagement for these European project and hope for future camp kids, that you will have a long ongoing power.. For our kids were these unique experiences, which helped the kids to loose the fears and shy to talk with foreign kids in holidays. Go on!
- My child was excited and got a rich knowlegde and experiences. We could recommend this for each child to take this chance. Thank you for the great organisation and making this camp successful
- Great thing -go on! :-)
- Thank you it was an unforgettable experience
- We regret nothing!! Our child liked it very much and would apply again. It was nice that the kids in the German group helped each other too (even with making tails..) A big praise and thank you to Mrs. Ludwig and Mrs Giersich!!! Everything was well organised, we were informed all the time. You had a big responsibility- everything went well Thank you!
